Sheraton Eatontown Hotel

Give Officers the Tools to Make a Difference

With your help, we provide training that changes how officers see and respond to trafficking. "The recounting of victims' stories and the barriers they face while disclosing their stories" opened eyes and hearts.

I appreciate that this training is trauma and survivor focused

Support Survivor-Centered Training

Your contribution helps ensure survivor voices guide the conversation. "The importance of incorporating survivors to my team" was a key takeaway for many attendees.

Join Us in Building Awareness and Action

Every donation helps create a safer New Jersey by equipping those who protect it. Together, we can expand the reach of this vital conference and keep survivor voices at the center.

Hearing survivors stories is so impactful and makes me as a law enforcement officer want to get out there and try to help every victim I can.

We need a collaborative effort that supports and serves the victims & survivors first.
NJ STATE TROOPER

All material we have learned for the past two days has opened my eyes to various aspects of human trafficking.
